

David is the Principal at Christian Ministries Academy in Hot Springs, AR, where he coaches high school basketball and volleyball. He is an ordained minister and an Associate Pastor at Christian Ministries Church. David is also a teacher at Applied Life Leaders Academy.

During the summer, David is a camp director at Brookhill Ranch Summer Camp and is a speaker for High Point Summer Camp, a leadership camp that equips young leaders with a Biblical worldview, with an emphasis on truth, morality, and a lasting foundation. Students also learn to develop a love for country, stand firm in a secular culture, and integrate Godly principles in every aspect of life. David helps build tomorrow's leaders by challenging this generation to get grounded in God's Word and become "doers of the Word, not hearers only".

David excels in his various presentations on worldview, education, politics, and a variety of other topics. He is a frequent speaker at men's seminars and marriage retreats. Pastors, seminars, churches, schools, and youth conferences have been challenged and inspired by the information he presents. From elementary students to senior adults, David gains the attention of all with his unique presentation style and powerful content. While he engages and challenges the mind, his dynamic messages speak straight to the heart. Regardless of where he is, David speaks into the lives of those around him, encouraging them to live passionately and to follow Christ whole-heartedly.

David graduated from college with a degree in Biblical Studies. He and his wife MeLisa, along with their two children, Olivia and Eli, currently reside in Hot Springs, AR.